The various stages in the development of Manitoba's boundaries are discussed in most secondary sources dealing with the history of the province, including:

- James A. Jacksons, The Centennial History of Manitoba (Toronto: McClelland & Stewart Ltd., 1970)
- W.L. Morton, Manitoba A History (Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 1957)
- F.H. Schofield, The Story of Manitoba, Vol. I (Winnipeg: S.J. Clarke Publishing Company, 1913)
- Another valuable source for this study is Don W. Thomson, Men and Meridians, Vol. II, (Ottawa: Queen's Printer, 1967)
